Dear Harold,

Here is a new revision of the Magic Bullet chapter. Please mark it up as you see fit.

I'm still not through with Guinn, and I have not properly incorporated all of your last offering. So I will be grateful for your tough analysis.

I honestly want to do the right thing on the NAA and Guinn. But I'm torn about how much to get into it, etc. After all, if evidence can vanish from the National Archives, then all of it becomes so suspect that it is a child's game to take any of it seriously. Perhaps this is an over-simplification, and you can tell me if it is.

Again, I am terribly grateful to you for your help.

All best,

HH.
